

Danger Zone

Parents and schools are asked to teach their children and students about the danger zone around the school bus. These are high risk areas as the driver may not or be able to see students.

GYPSD School Bus Drivers will assign safety zones where students should wait to board or unload the school bus. Safety zones are always located outside the danger zone.

