
PARTNERSHIP IN EDUCATION

Background

The formation of partnerships with business and industry provides an opportunity for educators to work in union with the community. Such partnerships offer the possibility of expanding the provision of relevant, challenging, life-based learning opportunities for students as well as supplying business with an opportunity to share their resources while benefiting from the resources of the educational system. The resultant sharing of attitudes, beliefs and values is beneficial to the system.

Procedures

1. A system-based partnership with business and industry will be organized and coordinated at the Division level. All responsibilities for such a partnership will remain at the Division level.
